

TRINITY TRUMPET

FROM THE MINISTER'S HEART ~

It's a jungle out there! If you haven't been on campus this week you have been missing out on the safari of a lifetime! VBS is in full swing and no pun intended... The decorations will be up Sunday for you to see all the hard and fabulous work Mrs. Norma and all her buddies have done for the 25-30 children attending this Serengeti Trek. I am so proud of the fact that Trinity does children's ministry right! Spread the word...

My sermon series in the gospel of John continues this Sunday and I hope you are reading the gospel along with the series. Your understanding of the preached Word will be greatly enhanced by your continual Bible study. For it is by His Word that you and I know His Truth. The Scripture reading is John 6: 43-71 and the sermon title is "Who can Accept This Teaching?" Serve is one of our five words of mission here at Trinity and I find that new creative ideas are extremely helpful in inspiring our minds. One of those you will find on the windowsills in the fellowship hall. The beanie babies there are going to Mexico with our youth on their Mission trip this summer to be given to the poor children of Mexico. These simple gifts of love have unbelievable potential as tools for sharing God's love from this great congregation to our little brothers and sisters who may be orphans and have no one to call mommy or daddy. They can take these soft stuffed animals and cuddle them and remember their America brothers and sisters in Christ from Texarkana giving them encouragement and comfort and assurance that God is real and He hasn't forgotten them. They will remember the message that Jesus loves them and that they are very important to Him and that because of his love for them personally He suffered and died for them. They will always remember the message of salvation with softness and love. Think about how you too can serve these little ones that our Lord and Savior has opened His arms to. As always, there's more to come!

Yours in Christ,

Russell Wilkins, Your Minister
