

TRINITY TRUMPET

FROM THE MINISTER'S HEART ~

As many of you already know Lisa and Catherine walked away from a terrible car accident a couple of weeks ago. The car began spinning out of control and rolled over at 70 mph on the interstate; after the car stopped rolling it landed on it's side with the passenger side door up in the median. Thank God that they were wearing their seat belts. They climbed out to safety and the rest is history. Our insurance company did a fantastic job as did the trooper and the men from the wrecker yard and I will always be grateful to the people who stopped and cared for my loved ones. What a blessing they all were to us, as are each of you sharing your love with us during this extraordinary life event. There were no citations issued, it was a freak accident. That's why "they" call em accidents. Lisa is now searching for a replacement car, which is a job she seems to relish. She spent a whole year looking and dealing for the last car. She's assured me it won't take that long this time! As I have reflected on this over the last few days, I am more and more convinced that God's providence is always at work in our lives. He is present during the normal drive to work, the typical problems of each day, and during our occasions of joy. His presence is felt at each of those times if we choose to pay attention. An accident or some other tragedy will immediately focus you on Him and you do pay attention. That's why all too often when people talk about God being present in their lives they usually think of their crisis events first. Yet, if we were to take the time to reflect on our average day we would also begin to see His footprints and fingerprints all around us. Prayer is the tool each of us has at our beckon call. No matter how simple it may be prayer centers us in our Father's presence and it enables us to give ourselves to Him and to know that He is with us today. As always, there's more to come!

Your in Christ,

Russell Wilkins, Your Minister

camp gilmont, tx

Tired of spending the weekend at home? Parents making you mow the lawn, clean your room, and wash the dog? We'll come to kidquake '06, leave the ordinary behind and join us for a weekend filled with adventure as we study creation and what role we all play in God's creation. Come have a blast with new and old summer camp staff as we play crazy games, canoe, do energizers, make crafts, and worship God. This year the cost is $90 per person with a $10 discount for every other person in the same family. If you are in 1st- 6th grade, ask your parent to pick up a registration packet in the church office, from Meta Savage, or online starting Wed, Feb 1st. All registration packets along with the conference fees are do to the church office or Meta Savage by Sun, Feb 12th. Please make all checks out to Trinity. If you have any questions please contact Meta Savage at 903-276-5311 or Anderson Wilkins at 903-824-0526.

Randy Sams Opportunities

Each month Trinity provides a meal for the Randy Sams Shelter. Mr. Cecil Phillips generously provides the main dish. Each month two large fresh salads are needed for the evening meal. Two other food items needed each month are bottled salad dressings and extra-extra large cans of green beans or whole kernel corn. These items may be placed in Trinity's kitchen area. They will later be kept in the storage closet and used as needed.

Many thanks from the Evangelism and Outreach Mission Team.

FROM THE WALLS.....

Well, I guess I'm getting too old to jump from my perch on the rafter after worship service. I hurt my paw last week and couldn't write to you, but it's better and I'll try to be more careful in the future.

*****

I really enjoyed hearing about the horse therapy a couple of Wednesdays ago. I'm just sorry there wasn't a larger group to enjoy Mr. Cecil's good eats and to learn about this program.

*****

Rev. Russ is just full of surprises these days! First, he shed his robe and last Sunday he put in the Nicene Creed rather than the Apostle's Creed. It's been many a moon since I've heard the Nicene Creed – probably eight or ten years.

*****

Did you know all the answers to Mr. B. R.'s Bible Quiz last Wednesday night? I sure didn't! Maybe I'd better start listening in on the W.O.W. classes since their teachers knew most of the answers to the test.

Mr. B. R. said there will be another quiz coming up soon – the annual president's quiz in a couple of weeks. You have plenty of time to bone up on presidential trivia.

*****

The general consensus Sunday morning was that we need Miss Orenne! The congregational singing seemed a little weak without her guidance. Miss Barbara did well in keeping the choir on cue during their anthem.

*****

I hope Miss LuAnn has a nice visit with her sister this week. I'm sure Rev. Russ is happy to know if either Miss Sharon or Miss LuAnn has to be gone, the other fills in without missing a beat. We're twice-blessed to have two secretaries who are not only quite competent but are wonderful Christian women and who've become part of our little family.

The box of old cards for St. Jude's home is slowly filling up. Don't forget to bring the fronts of your old cards for the children
