FROM THE MINISTER'S HEART ~

School begins next week! WOW, Word on Wednesday, our after school children's program begins its 7th season the 23rd of August and the times are from 3:30 till 5:05 each Wednesday and free pick up at day care or school is available upon request. I drive my "house" to pick them up. My dear bride, Lisa, is the director and very excited about this year's staff and curriculum. We have several new WOW volunteers this year taking our children through the Bible in prayer, play, prose and praise! If you are interested in working a thirty-minute teaching shift with the four and five year olds call Lisa at 870-773-5651. If you're simply intrigued with really cool ministry just come by to see what's going on and I can assure you a blessing that is life changing. WOW teaches a love for God's Word and develops a personal relationship with Christ that reaches home, school and the neighborhood.

We are always looking for new children to participate and if your friend's church does not have an activity on Wednesday afternoons for their children invite them to WOW. Our children come from First Baptist, Williams Memorial and other great congregations from around the city.

Our three adult Sunday school classes will begin new curriculum in a couple of weeks so now is a great time to get involved! Youth are led by Angela, Dylan and Claire in B9 and the Berean class is led by Ginger Mann and the Foundations class is led by yours truly.

We have an exciting line up of studies ranging from understanding a Christian Worldview by R.C. Sproul (Bereans) to When I Don't Desire God: How to Fight for Joy, by John Piper (Foundations) and Reformation Press, Deep Truth, Bold Faith, Lives Changed, by David C. Cook (Youth). Great stuff and perfect opportunities for seekers to check out the faith. As always, there's more to come!

We're late in doing this, but we did so appreciate the cards and kind expressions of sympathy following the death of Cecil's sister Polly. Trinity truly has a caring, loving, and supportive church family, and we are so thankful to be apart of it.

The Property Ministry Team

FROM THE WALLS....

In a takeoff on Robert Louis Stevenson's poem, Requiem, "Home is the preacher, home from the hills, and the fisherman home from the stream". Rev. Russ is back from the hills and I was sure relieved to see he didn't look like Yosemite Sam with a handle bar moustache stretched from one ear to the other, although he still is not exactly clean shaven.

POWERFUL! INSPIRATIONAL! Those are the best words I can use to describe Rev. Russ' sermon Sunday morning. It was that and more.

"It Is Well With My Soul". I believe it, Miss Julie! She sings and the angels smile.

Whew! When I heard there was to be a "pounding" for Mr. Dylan and Miss Claire last Wednesday night, I was worried! But, it was sure a relief to see they weren't beaten up after all! They received four boxes off all sorts of groceries and cleaning stuff to help them start out in their new life together.

Wineskins...hmmm... That sounds interesting. Do you think Rev. Russ will serve crackers and cheese with the wine? Just joking! Seriously, I'm looking forward to hearing about the meeting he attended.

You know Mr. Pat and Miss Gay? Well, I heard some of the men talking Sunday morning about an article in the newspaper in which Pat and his family were praised for the outstanding work they have done for the Legion team for almost twenty years. The team has really done well this year, too. Like the Ever-Ready Bunny, they're still going strong.
